

Measurement Committee

Amendment No.8

to

AC72 Class Rule

(Version 1.1: 22nd February, 2011)

Remove:

- 20.1 AC72 Yacht identification numbers shall be allocated sequentially by the Measurement Committee, except numbers that may be culturally objectionable may be skipped at the discretion of the Measurement Committee. When an AC72 Yacht's ownership is transferred from one country to another, it shall retain the same identification number with only the national letters being changed.

Replace with:

- 20.1 AC72 Yacht identification numbers shall be allocated sequentially by the Measurement Committee, except numbers that may be culturally objectionable may be skipped at the discretion of the Measurement Committee. When an AC72 Yacht's ownership is transferred, it shall retain the same identification number.

Remove:

- 20.4 Class insignia and AC72 Yacht identification number shall be displayed on the top 25% of the wing. Details of the insignia and identification number shall be published by the Regatta Director and may be amended from time to time.

July 2, 2012

This amendment is made by the Measurement Committee, with the approval of the Regatta Director and by unanimous vote of all Competitors eligible to vote as of July 2, 2012, in accordance with AC72 Class Rule 4.

Nick Nicholson, Chairman for the Measurement Committee

with the approval of: Iain Murray
Regatta Director
